

Curriculum vitae
Rawina TRAUTMANN

Languages: German, Kurdish, English, French, Farsi

Professional experience

- March - Jul. 2023 Research stay in Erbil, Kurdish Region of Iraq
Interviews with women who have joined the Peshmerga.
- Jan. 2022 Visiting lecturer at the Université Paris 8 | Vincennes - Saint-Denis, France
Undergraduate course: "Textes de science politique en anglais: Analyzing international security through a gender lens"
- since 2020 Research assistant at the Chair of European and International Politics at European University Viadrina, Frankfurt (Oder)
Undergraduate (BA) courses in English and German on: Theories of International Relations in connection with a current global conflict, Feminist International Relations, Gender and Security, Analysing Global Conflicts from a Gender Perspective
Supervision, assessment and final oral examination of bachelor theses
- 2018 – 2019 Internship and subsequent student assistant at the German Chemical Industry Association (VCI), Berlin
- 2017 Internship at OMV AG, International and Governmental Relations, Vienna, Austria
- 2017 Internship at UNICEF Hamburg
- 2016/2017 Internship at the Austrian Institute for International Affairs, Vienna, Austria
- 2013 Internship at the Permanent Mission of the Republic of Iraq to the United Nations in Geneva, Switzerland

Education and qualifications

- since 2020 Doctoral candidate at the Chair of European and International Politics, European University Viadrina, Frankfurt (Oder)
Working title: Fighting Multiple Battles on Different Frontlines – An Extensive Study of the Female Peshmerga in the Kurdistan Region of Iraq
- 2018 – 2020 Master of Arts - European Studies, European University Viadrina, Frankfurt (Oder)
Master thesis title: "Human Rights Violations in the Name of National Security: The Case of European Foreign Fighters in Iraq and Syria"
- 2019 Master of Arts – International Security, Sciences Po Paris (semester abroad), France
- 2013 – 2017 Bachelor of Arts – Political Science, University of Vienna, Austria
Bachelor thesis title: "When the fate of women lies in the hands of family honour: A comparison of honour based violence in the Kurdistan Region of Iraq and Albania through the lens of Bourdieu's symbolic capital"
- 2012 – 2013 International Relations, Geneva School of Diplomacy, Switzerland
- 1999 – 2012 School education in Austria, Iran (2 years) and Switzerland (2 years)
School leaving qualification: International Baccalaureate (in English) from the International School of Berne, Switzerland